

“Only I Can Help You”

by Nanette Mary

Thank God for Father Gruner.

I dedicate my following poem, “Only I Can Help You”, in honor of Father Nicholas Gruner at the Fatima Center in Fort Erie, Canada and all his wonderful helpers who made possible the Conference in Rome at which I was privileged to be present. You too can see and hear many of the interesting and learned speakers at ...

“Only I can help you” is what She has told the world.

The time is short – it’s vital that Her Secret be unfurled.

Full two-and-fifty years have passed since this should have been done.

‘What people think’ seems paramount, and thus less souls are won.

The Russian Orthodox, they think offended well may be.

Instead, offending God goes on for all the world to see.

There is a fearless priest who’s one the Pope won’t even see.

Perhaps he knows that, facing truth, he’ll risk eternity.

I pray that Father Gruner will soon get the chance to face

Pope Benedict, for he’s the one who can save the human race.

“Remind My Ministers,” Christ said, “That if they still delay –

In doing what My Mother

asks, they’ll have a price to pay.”

As happened to the King of France who failed to Consecrate

That country to My Sacred Heart – No longer will I wait.”

They say the Pope’s a prisoner and cannot use his power.

That’s human thinking – What he needs is courage – now – this hour ...

To do what only he can do by issuing a command

That all the bishops in the world should heed God’s strict demand.

Russia they must consecrate to Mary’s Immaculate Heart.

Her Secret too must be revealed ... Intended from the start.

What folly to thus disobey the Mother of God’s Son

Who loves His Mother and insists that through Her, this be done.

Each day I pray for all true priests, that they will find the way –

To go back to the age-old Mass without prolonged delay.

They need the Gift of Courage from the Holy Spirit, Who

Will help remove the obstacles and show them what to do.

Thank God for Father Gruner who continues Mary's fight

Against the devil and all those who proudly flaunt their might.

Dear Holy Spirit, give us strength and wisdom so that all

Who, by this priest, are so well led, may never fail nor fall.

Nanette's Comments on the Holy Father

From among the vast crowd in St. Peter's Square, I saw the Pope and he looked so small, yet he has the greatest responsibility of all and the peace of the world is dependent on him setting a day on which he and all the bishops throughout the world will carry out the required Consecration of Russia. At Fatima, Our Lady also asked that prayers should be said for the Pope. Right now, that is what we should all be doing, asking the Holy Spirit to bestow on him the grace, strength and courage to do what only he can do – consecrate Russia to the Immaculate Heart of Mary.
