

As part of The Fatima Challenge, the participants attended the papal audience on Wednesday, May 5th. A number of our bishops were on the podium with Pope Benedict XVI. Pictured here, with their hand posters, are some of the speakers and supporters of The Fatima Challenge who came to hear Pope Benedict XVI.

During the week of May 3 to 7, we know that the Vatican itself was watching the speakers on The Fatima Challenge web site (www.fatimachallenge.com). It seems, from the dramatic events that followed (see article on page 3), that Pope Benedict himself came on-line to see and hear The Fatima Challenge Conference.

FATIMA CHALLENGE MAKES HISTORY IN ROME

On May 3, the world's foremost experts on the most important event of modern times convened a great congress in Rome.

From morning to evening, from May 3 through May 7,

Fatima Challenge Makes History in Rome

The Fatima Challenge offered Masses, Rosaries and talks — each talk more powerful than the last — at the very doorstep of the Vatican as the Pope prepared for his pilgrimage to Fatima.

And the Vatican was listening.

Pope Benedict shocked the media and the Catholic world during his trip to Portugal by affirming the message we had been hammering home the previous week in Rome: Fatima is the key to understanding the present crisis in the Church and the world.

On his way to Portugal, the Holy Father spoke about the Third Secret to the press and made a most astounding and historic admission. At Fatima itself, before 500,000 pilgrims, he said even more. (See pages

3, 4 and 5 for his exact words and our report on this.)

Because of Pope Benedict XVI's resounding vindication of the Fatima Center, we can say of The Fatima Challenge — MISSION ACCOMPLISHED.

The conference was a great success, even surpassing our highest hopes. But our work goes on.

We need to get the DVDs and printed copies of the conference talks to every bishop in the world and to as many priests and laity as we are able. They need to know what Our Lady expects of them, demands of them, in the name of obedience and charity.

So stay with us. Check www.fatima.org for information about our ongoing efforts, and the upcoming issues of The Fatima Crusader that will focus on the amazing events that took place in Rome during The Fatima Challenge.
