

What Did Cardinal Pacelli Mean by the “Suicide of Altering the Faith”?

by Bill and Casey Warren

For 200 years Freemasons made overt efforts to destroy the Catholic Church, without success. Communists sought the same destruction in more recent times. In the 1900's, the Masons saw the Modernist movement in the Catholic Church as an opportunity to get to the heart of the Church and obtain by stealth what they and the Communists were unable to obtain by frontal attack.

The Catholic Church's Enemies' Game Plan

Their goal was to undermine the Church from within. For much of the Twentieth Century this triumvirate (Communists, Freemasons and Modernists) fomented anti-Tradition trouble in the Church by persecution, by promoting Modernist education, and by ordination and consecration of priests and bishops who were Modernist in their persuasion, and even directly placing Communists or Freemasons in increasing numbers into the Catholic clergy.

The Vatican, in the early 1960's, became the driving force behind this anti-Tradition movement in the Church with its radical changes in the liturgy and its efforts to make the Church more “ecumenical”. These changes were billed as necessary to open up a “Church” steeped in outdated rituals and traditions and to encourage unity among the various religions of the world.

The effect of Vatican II, at least the way this triumvirate (Modernists, Masons and Communists) transformed it, was to water down the Catholic Church so that it was really no different than any other church, and to cause Catholics to become less and less devoted to Our Lord and His Blessed Mother, and, with the help of a society steeped in materialism and “sexual liberation”, to bring on the sexual abuse problems among priests, wide-spread abortion, rampant illicit sex and the cult of homosexuality.

All in all, it represented what Pope Pius XII warned about years before becoming Pope when he was Cardinal Eugenio Pacelli. He said: “I am worried by the Blessed Virgin’s messages to Lucy of Fatima. This persistence of Mary about the dangers which menace the Church is a divine warning against the suicide of altering the Faith, in her liturgy, her theology and her soul ...”

Our Own Awakening

For forty-five years, Casey and I accepted ecumenism and the changes in the liturgy as God’s will for His people. We even participated as active members of the ecumenical People of Praise Charismatic Community. However, as right as it seemed for us at the time, in retrospect it diminished us in our Catholic Faith. We remained faithful Catholics, but could see we were missing something.

As we re-acquainted ourselves with Our Lady’s Message at Fatima, especially through the works of Fathers Nicholas Gruner and Paul Kramer, we became aware

The Passion and the Death of Jesus Christ

- A truly great book which God uses to teach man about Jesus’ great love for us.
- For you Jesus died a very painful death.
- Show yourself grateful to Jesus by calling to mind the sufferings and death He endured to save you.
- Make your own salvation more secure by meditating daily on the Passion of Jesus. St. Augustine says there is no more profitable occupation for your soul.

of the serious problems that have developed since Vatican II and the consequences of the popes' failures to consecrate Russia to the Immaculate Heart of Mary, in concert with the bishops of the world, as Our Lady directed to Lucy of Fatima.

Fatima is the Key

Our Lady warned that the Holy Father would have much to suffer, several nations would be annihilated, and communism would spread its errors everywhere if Her directions were not heeded. Sister Lucy warned that a diabolical disorientation would occur at the highest levels of the Church.

Also, the Third Secret revealed by Our Lady to the three shepherd children at Fatima was to be disclosed by the Pope in 1960, shortly before the start of Vatican II. Pope John XXIII refused to do so, as did Popes Paul VI and John Paul II (John Paul I was Pope for only 33 days). However, in the year 2000, Cardinal Sodano, Secretary of State of the Vatican, disclosed a vision of a bishop dressed in white who was killed after mounting a hill on the top of which was a large cross, and said this was the entire Third Secret and that the events prophesied at Fatima were behind us.

In contradiction to this, Pope Benedict XVI stated in May, 2010 that the prophecies of Fatima were ongoing and implied that they included the priest child abuse issue. There is strong belief that there is a written part of the Third Secret that has never been disclosed, except to several popes and high level prelates over the years.

This unrevealed part of the Third Secret is believed, based on these limited disclosures, to contain several dramatic prophecies, including: 1) the occurrence of the Great Apostasy in the Church presumably precipitated by the diabolical disorientation at the highest levels of the Church, including the priest abuse scandal; and 2) a horrifying apocalyptic WWIII, where millions upon millions of people will be killed.

Yet, Our Lady said that in the end the Consecration of Russia would occur as She directed, that Her Immaculate Heart would triumph, and a period of peace would follow.

“Jesus, Mary and Joseph hasten the consecration of Russia, as requested by Mary, to Her Immaculate Heart.”
